October 14, 2014

Kathleen Poole is a freelance writer working on assignment about vacation rentals in San Francisco for Rental Travels Magazine. Our readership is currently at 15,000.

Vacation Rental Travels Magazine highlights the unique benefits of "out of the box" vacation experiences. Your vacation rental will potentially be featured in Vacation Rental Travels Magazine. As we are a highly visual magazine, if you could provide high quality photos, we greatly appreciate it.

There will be a link to your site in the article for readers to contact you directly for reservations and more information. You will also be given a link to the magazine to post on your website and put in your email signature line. We do kindly ask that you promote the magazine to your mailing list and on your website, if applicable.

Should the property not be as represented, we will not be able to feature it in the magazine. However, if the photos and copy match the experience, we will be delighted to include your vacation rental in our magazine.

In exchange for promoting your property, I ask you to extend a complimentary stay for Ms. Poole and companion to thoroughly research your property and surrounding area.

Please contact me at Beth@VacationRentalTravels.com if you have any questions.

Warmest Regards,
